

A Message to all lightworkers: Wake Up!

Calling all occupants of intergalactic faith... it's time to wake up or re-awaken. This is the most important period of time for lightworkers. Although we experience lulls and it appears that all is well, this is an illusion. There is a battle going on for our souls between good and evil. Just look at the top news stories. You can bet the negative forces are not on vacation. Please, I beg you, don't get caught snoozing!

I understand the persecution we lightworkers have been experiencing. The dark forces have thrown the book of woes at us. Have you experienced serious health problems or are nursing loved one around you who are? Have financial problems plagued you? Are you in the midst of feeling lethargic, depressed, unhappy, abandoned and hopeless? Do your challenges seem way too insurmountable? Have you lost interest in your studies and research on UFOs and aliens, in what's going on in the world and with your fellow human beings and most of all with the spiritual battle in progress?

Well, this is exactly what the dark forces, the demons and negative aliens want you to feel. I, too, have felt all this. However, there is something born into the makeup of a lightworker that makes them stand their ground when threatened. God needs us more than ever. Now is not the time to let others stand alone. We are stronger standing together in this battle for our eternal souls.

Hear the battle call! Wake up. Dig your heels in and come out fighting. I know you can do it. God has faith in all of you. It's time to get off your duff and do something positive.

Just one look into the eyes of family, friends, loved ones, a small child, an elderly person, a favored pet and all of God's creations should trigger the love inside of you and give you the strength you need to stand up to adversity and evil.

What do you think you could contribute in this battle? How could you help your fellow human beings? How could you right the wrongs and make this planet the way it was intended to be? Make a plan... take the first step. God will guide you and show you the way. Remember... earthly things will pass away but souls are eternal. Decide what side of The Force you wish to be on... then fight for it. You can do it. Have faith!
